

Dr. Weiqiu Yu

A professor of Economics at UNB Fredericton, Weiqiu has published in Public Finance, Canadian Journal of Economics, Canadian Tax Journal, and Canadian Public Policy. She has edited two books; produced three book chapters, as well as numerous reports for provincial and federal governments; and presented 36 papers at professional conferences. Responsible for research for the National Round Table on the Environment and the Economy, she was invited to participate in Canada's pre-budget consultations of 2011 and 2014.

Weiqiu— who has served as Chair of Economics (2011-16), Acting Dean of Arts (2010-11), and Associate Dean of Arts (2004-10)—led UNB's recruiting team to China four times, which help attract hundreds of students to the Fredericton and Saint John campuses. An active volunteer, she has served on the boards of the New Brunswick Youth Orchestra (NBYO) and the local Children's International Summer Village (CISV). She and husband Limin Liu ( 5-term president of CCANB) have made significant contributions to the province's Chinese Cultural Association for over 25 years.
